Description of the Parties:

Complainant alleged Respondents' refusal to grant his request for a garage that was closer to his apartment constituted a failure to make a reasonable accommodation. Respondents own or manage the subject property, a one-bedroom apartment located at 102 South Pilot Street, Pilot Mound, Iowa 50223.

A complaint having been filed by Complainant against Respondents with the Iowa Civil Rights Commission (hereafter referred to as the Commission) under Iowa Code Chapter 216 and there having been a preliminary inquiry, the parties do hereby agree and settle the above-captioned matter in the following extent and manner:

Acknowledgment of Fair Housing Law

1. Respondents agree there shall be no discrimination, harassment, or retaliation of any kind against Complainant or any other person for filing a charge under Iowa Code Chapter 216; or because of giving testimony or assistance, or participating in any manner in any investigation, proceeding or hearing under Iowa Code Chapter 216; or because of lawful opposition to any practice forbidden under Iowa Code Chapter 216.

2. Respondents acknowledge Federal and State Fair Housing Laws make it unlawful to refuse to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices, or services, when the accommodations are necessary to afford the person equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling.

42 U.S.C. 3604(f)(2)(a); Iowa Code § 216.8A(3)(b)(1)

Voluntary and Full Settlement

3. The parties acknowledge this Agreement is a voluntary and full settlement of the disputed complaint. The parties affirm they have read and fully understand the terms set forth herein. No party has been coerced, intimidated, threatened or in any way forced to become a party to this Agreement.

4. The parties enter into this Predetermination Settlement Agreement in a good faith effort to amicably resolve existing disputes. The execution of this Agreement is not an admission of any wrongdoing or violation of law. Nor is the execution of this Agreement an admission by Complainant that any claims asserted in his complaint are not fully meritorious.

6. Respondents agree the Commission may review compliance with this Settlement Agreement. And as part of such review, Respondents agree the Commission may examine witnesses, collect documents, or require written reports, all of which will be conducted in a reasonable manner by the Commission.

Disclosure

7. The parties agree the terms of this Agreement shall be subject to public disclosure unless Complainant and Respondents agree otherwise, and the Commission determines that disclosure is not necessary to further the purposes of Iowa Code Chapter 216 relating to unfair or discriminatory practices in housing or real estate.

Release

8. Complainant hereby waives, releases, and covenants not to sue Respondents with respect to any matters which were, or might have been alleged as charges filed with the Iowa Civil Rights Commission, the Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, Department of Housing and Urban Development, or any other anti-discrimination agency, and with regard to any and all other matters, subject to performance by Respondents of the promises and representations contained herein. Complainant agrees any complaint filed with any other anti-discrimination agency, including the Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, Department of Housing and Urban Development, which involves the issues in this complaint, shall be closed as Satisfactorily Adjusted.

9. Respondents agree to place the federal Fair Housing Poster (English and Spanish) in each of their rental or leasing offices in a conspicuous location, easily viewable to tenants and prospective tenants.

Respondents also agree to send documentation to the Commission, verifying the posters have been placed, to the attention of Don Grove, Supervisor of Investigations, within ten (10) days of receiving a Closing Letter from the Commission.

New Policy and Practice

10. For all residential rental properties owned and managed, now and in the future, Respondents agree, within thirty (30) days of the execution of this Settlement Agreement, to adopt and implement specific, uniform, and objective written standards and procedures for receiving and handling requests made by people with disabilities for reasonable accommodation. These standards shall comply with the requirements of Iowa Code Chapter 216 and 42 U.S.C. §§ 3601 et seq., and include the following provisions:

Respondents shall inform all applicants and occupants that they may request reasonable accommodations of Respondents' rules, policies, practices, and services. Prior to lease execution, if prospective residents inquire about reasonable accommodations, Respondents shall inform them of their ability to seek reasonable accommodations.

Respondents shall use the following forms:

- Request for Reasonable Accommodation (Attachments 1 and 2), and
- Approval or Denial of Reasonable Accommodation Request

Oral requests for reasonable accommodations shall be recorded by Respondents' employees or agents using the "Request" form, Attachment 2.

- Date request received;
- Nature of request;
- Whether request granted or denied; and

Parking for Persons with Disabilities and Fair Housing

“Because of my disability I can’t walk very far without suffering extreme discomfort and fatigue. I have a DOT permit to park in spaces assigned for persons with disabilities.

And even though my landlord has designated several spaces close to the building, there are times when I can’t find an open space at a reasonably-safe distance. Whenever I leave the building, I worry that I won’t be able to find a place when I return. I worry that ‘I’ll have to drive around for hours waiting for a space to open or I’ll have to rent a motel room again.’ -- Actual complaint before the Iowa Civil Rights Commission

Lack of parking for persons with disabilities

For a person with a disability that limits or restricts their mobility, lack of sufficient parking can be a significant barrier to the full use and enjoyment of their dwelling. Lack of sufficient parking for persons with disabilities at a housing complex can also be a violation of State parking law, as well as State and Federal Fair Housing Laws. A resident with a disability who has a DOT parking permit who cannot find an available ‘persons with disabilities parking space’ or other suitable parking is effectively denied housing based on disability.

State parking law

State law mandates designated public parking for persons with disabilities. The law sets forth location, dimension, and designation requirements, as well as the dimension of the access aisles along side the parking spaces. The law applies to off-street parking provided by public accommodations, such as retail stores and government agencies, as well as multi-family housing, such as apartments or condominiums.

- For property managers who provide ten or more resident parking spaces, they must designate at a minimum one parking space for persons with disabilities, as needed, for each dwelling unit housing a person with a disability.

- Each of those designated spaces must meet the law's location, dimension, and designation requirements.
- If the property manager provides separate parking for visitors, then the manager must meet the number requirement for "off-street parking facilities." That number requirement is based on the number of total spaces offered.

(Ex. A property manager that offers 10-25 spaces for visitors must designate one of those spaces for persons with disabilities.)

- Where parking for residents and visitors is combined, the property manager should combine the number required for residents with disabilities with the number required for visitors to arrive at the minimum number required by State parking law.

State and Federal Fair Housing Laws

When a resident with a disability complains to their property manager about the lack of suitable parking or requests additional suitable spaces, the resident is requesting a reasonable accommodation. Under State and Federal Fair Housing Laws, the property manager is obligated to make the accommodation to their policies or services –

- By designating additional spaces beyond the minimum required by State parking law, if reasonable and necessary to afford the resident an equal opportunity to use and enjoy their dwelling unit.
- By assisting with the enforcement of the designated parking spaces in order that the residents with disabilities have the use of those spaces.
- Making other modifications to its (parking) policies and procedures if reasonable and necessary to afford the resident an equal opportunity to use and enjoy his or her dwelling unit.

To ensure that a housing complex is meeting both the requirements of the law and the needs of its residents, the property manager can request information about parking needs, including the need for a 'persons with disabilities' parking space at the time that the lease is entered. In this manner the property manager will have current, accurate information with which to designate spaces for its residents and guests. In the interim, property managers may choose to use a survey in which they ask each resident to report the number of persons in their household, as well as the number of their visitors, who require designated parking as the basis for setting the number needed.

Remember, the State law that mandates parking for persons with disabilities sets a minimum number, not a maximum number.
